

Women's Policy, Inc.

in cooperation with

Senators Barbara Mikulski and Olympia Snowe

Senators Hillary Rodham Clinton and Lisa Murkowski

Reps. Eddie Bernice Johnson and Mary Bono Mack

Co-Chairs, International Women's Task Force

Congressional Caucus for Women's Issues

and

Reps. Jan Schakowsky and Christopher Shays

invite you to a lunch briefing:

Microbicide Research: A Promising HIV/AIDS Prevention Strategy for Women

Wednesday, December 3, 2008

12:30-2 p.m.

345 Cannon House Office Building (Cannon Caucus Room)

SPEAKERS

Roberta Black, Ph.D., Chief, Microbicide Research Branch, NIAID, will discuss microbicide research funded by NIAID.

Zeda F. Rosenberg, Sc.D., Chief Executive Officer, International Partnership for Microbicides, will summarize the status of global microbicide development efforts.

Salim S. Abdool Karim, M.D., Ph.D., Pro Vice-Chancellor (Research), University of KwaZulu-Natal; Director, Centre for the AIDS Programme of Research, South Africa, will discuss "on-the-ground" issues of microbicide clinical trials in South Africa.

This briefing was made possible through a generous grant from the Bill & Melinda Gates Foundation

Please RSVP in the affirmative only to Women's Policy, Inc. by Monday, December 1, by faxing this form to (202) 554-2346, calling us at (202) 554-2323, e-mailing diane@womenspolicy.org, or clicking "Reply to Invite."

Name _____

I will be attending _____

Office _____

Phone _____

Vegetarian Preference _____