

WCPI 2026 Sponsorship Guide

About The Women's Congressional Policy Institute

The Women's Congressional Policy Institute (WCPI) is a nonpartisan, nonprofit organization dedicated to advancing women's leadership in public policy.

For over 30 years, WCPI has brought together women policymakers from both sides of the aisle to find common ground and develop bipartisan solutions that impact women, families, and communities across the country. WCPI also supports the next generation of women leaders through its Congressional Fellowships on Women and Public Policy, internship programs, and convening bipartisan congressional staff.

Why Partner with WCPI?

Your support enables WCPI to continue its mission of fostering bipartisan dialogue, mentoring young women entering public service, and educating stakeholders about issues affecting women and families.

Sponsors align their brand with a respected, impactful institution at the center of women's leadership and policymaking. By partnering with WCPI, your organization can demonstrate its commitment to bipartisan cooperation, civic engagement, and the advancement of women in government.

Sponsors benefit from:

- Prominent recognition across WCPI's digital, print, and in-person platforms;
- Logo placement on WCPI website, event signage, and promotional materials; and
- Targeted networking with congressional leaders, staff, and policy influencers.
